

CARNELUTTI LAW FIRM AND ICT LEGAL CONSULTING TOGETHER FOR THE FUTURE AND INNOVATION

Milan 9 April 2021 - Carnelutti Law Firm and ICT Legal Consulting (ICTLC) teamed up with a strategic partnership for Tech Law, Cyber Security and Privacy / Data Protection practices.

The new alliance will provide clients with integrated expertise: the combination of Carnelutti's practice in all areas of corporate legal and tax advice and that of ICTLC, which offers specialist advice on Privacy and data protection, IT security and all areas of Tech Law (from IoT, Cloud / Quantum / Edge Computing, Big Data & Analytics to digital marketing/adv, from AI to Information Technology). Thus, the two firms can mutually rely on the experience, the market recognition, and the international scope that distinguishes them both.

"We are thrilled to start this collaboration at a time when the importance of Tech Law and Cybersecurity, beyond data protection, has become truly strategic for companies. I think of those constantly innovating and of those increasingly investing in technology - states Luca Arnaboldi, Senior Partner of Carnelutti Law Firm. - This alliance will not only allow us to leap consulting to our clients in this area of practice. I am also confident that our common values, i.e., our international vocation, the enhancement of diversity and the focus on our clients' needs, will make us work very well together. We will be able to support each other effectively, thanks to the recognized experience of the professionals who work with us". Paolo Balboni and Luca Bolognini, founding partners of ICTLC, add: "An important strategic partnership, which reaches the completion of the tenth anniversary for ICTLC. In recent years, we have invested significantly to strengthen our consulting capacity in our core business of Data Protection, Tech Law and Cybersecurity, consolidating our position in the market. The interesting news is also coming for our clients. Through this alliance with Carnelutti Law Firm, based on mutual esteem, complementarity, and constant search for innovation, we will offer our clients excellent integrated support (tech and legal) through a partnership with one of the "best in class" for the sector."

The partnership will strategically enhance the strength of the 120 professionals in the corporate legal advice of Carnelutti Law Firm and the over 50 of ICTLC, highly specialized in Privacy and Data Protection, Tech Law and Cybersecurity.

CARNELUTTI Law Firm is an independent Italian law firm that offers its clients a wide range of national and international legal and tax advice. Our approximately 120 professionals are based in Milan, New York, Los Angeles and Rome.
